No place like home

You've invited us into your gardens, your yards and your special moments for nearly two decades. You've shared images of beautiful weddings, relaxing backyards, memorial gardens and other treasured times. You've shared personal stories, given us testimonials, left reviews, and we are so grateful. New England Arbors wouldn't be at the top of our industry without the people who buy and enjoy our products. So thank you.

We've included a small fraction of the beautiful photos we have received from customers in this catalogue. Keep your eyes peeled for pictures marked 'customer image', you'll see some great installations in some gorgeous locations.

New!

When we introduced our first product (The Lakewood Pergola) in our composite material (a mixture of vinyl and wood flour) our customers loved the look, and especially the convenience of such a modern material: Up close it looks like wood, while at the same time, eliminating the maintenance required with traditional wood.

Our customers have asked for these products for years, and we're pleased to introduce two new products: The Savannah Trellis and the Sierra Arbor are the newest products in our composite line and their natural beauty is sure to compliment any setting.

New!

For years we've had customers call our office for advice about larger pergolas. Getting them custom built locally was prohibitively expensive, and there was still the extensive upkeep. Wouldn't it be great to be able to attach two together to create a huge, yard enhancing game changer? We agreed. We walked many customers through combining two of our pergola kits together, so many in fact, that we decided to make it much easier and create a very large pergola kit.

The Regency Grande Pergola is a 12 x 24 Pergola that will change your yard for sure; creating a base for relaxing and entertaining. Even better- It's maintenance free, features a long warranty, and ships via UPS!

Inspired by the incomparable charm of New England design

Welcome to a world of warm, classic and customer focused design – a place where outdoor style begins.

A New England Arbors product is the perfect choice to beautify your yard; whether it's an arbor that adds a focal point to an entry way or as a home for your climbing plants, a pergola to create a relaxing outdoor room, a lamp post to cast a charming light – welcoming friends to your home.

Because we value your time as much as you do, all of our vinyl products are maintenance free. You'll never have to paint, stain or worry about your New England Arbors purchase. A promise we make for 20 years!

We focus on our products from the initial design, through the manufacturing process to the marketing of the final product. We're happy to spend the extra time, attention and money to present our products in the best light. We're proud of our attention to detail. At New England Arbors, the little touches are important – and we're confident you'll notice the difference.
